Your Wilmington Symphony

PASSPORT to the WORLD

Masterworks Series | Symphony Pops | Family Matinees

Steven Errante, conductor

Mozart's Austria, Brahms' Germany

Saturday, September 22, 2012 | 8:00 p.m.

Elizabeth Loparits, piano

Sponsored by

Wilmington Gastroenterology Associates

Mozart's popularity in Vienna was at its peak in 1784 when he premiered his Piano Concerto No. 17 with its final movement brimming with the excitement of one of his comic opera finales. Across the border, Brahms composed his enchanting and beautiful Serenade No. 1 under the spell of Mozart's own serenades.

Rendezvous in Paris

Saturday

October 20, 2012 | 8:00 p.m.

Mike Waddell, clarinet

Sponsored by First Citizens Private Wealth Management

Make the acquaintance of French music from two centuries, Baroque composer Jean-Phillippe Rameau's Les Indes Galantes and Claude Debussy's Premiere Rhapsodie, one of the most beautiful works in the clarinet repertoire. This perfect "10" of a concert concludes with Maurice Ravel's sensational Boléro!

Home for the Holidays

Saturday

December 1, 2012 | 8:00 p.m.

UNCW Choirs, Joe Hickman, director

Sponsored by The Davis Community

Ring in the holidays with Mozart and Handel — sacred works by Wolfgang along with his dad Leopold's "Musical Sleigh Ride,"— plus selections from Handel's venerated Messiah, and a joyous Christmas carol sing-along!

Spirit of the Americas

Saturday

March 16, 2013 | 8:00 p.m.

Student Concerto Competition Winners

First stop is Mexico City for Aaron Copland's dance-inspired El Salon Mexico followed by Leonard Bernstein's jazzy ballet Fancy Free, affirming the energy and vitality of his beloved New York City. Also performing are the winners of the Richard R. Deas Student Concerto Competition.

St. Petersburg Sojourn

Saturday, April 27, 2013 | 8:00 p.m.

Paolo André Gualdi, piano

Tchaikovsky's passionate Piano Concerto No. 1 received its Russian premiere in this cultural heart of modern day Russia, as did Shostakovich's Symphony No. 9, a work of Mozartian lightness the composer described as "a joyful little piece" in which "a bright mood predominates."
